Pratt Fine Arts Center Presents "One Hot Night" 2010 Fall Open House

On Saturday, November 13, Pratt Fine Arts Center opens its doors to the public for "One Hot Night", a free open house providing an exciting and welcoming environment for the public to learn about Pratt Fine Arts Center's classes, studios, instructors and more.

Tours of the studios, activities for kids and artist demonstrations will inform visitors of Pratt's unique programs and offer a chance to meet instructors, students and staff. Visitors will see dozens of artists pour bronze, blow glass, pull prints, paint, carve stone, fabricate jewelry and forge hot steel!

The public is invited to explore Pratt from 6 - 9 pm on Saturday, November 13th.
