

For Immediate Release
August 25, 2009
Information: Karen Rudd
206.328.2200 x235
karen@pratt.org

Presenting In the Heat of the Night Pratt Fine Arts Center's Biannual Open House

On Saturday, November 14, Pratt Fine Arts Center opens its doors to the public for In the Heat of the Night, a free open house providing an exciting and welcoming environment for the public to learn about the Northwest's dynamic studios for the visual arts.

Tours of the studios, activities for kids and artist demonstrations will inform visitors of Pratt's unique classes and programs and offer a chance to meet instructors, students and staff. Visitors will see dozens of artists pour bronze, blow glass, pull prints, paint, carve stone, fabricate jewelry and forge hot steel!

The public is invited to enjoy refreshments and explore Pratt from 6 - 9 pm on Saturday, November 14, 2009.

What: In the Heat of the Night: Pratt Fine Arts Center's Biannual Open House
When: Saturday, November 14
Time: 6 - 9 pm
Where: Pratt Fine Arts Center, 1902 South Main Street, Seattle
Admission: Free
Parking: Free parking is available

Since 1976, Pratt Fine Arts Center has offered art classes for everyone and workspace for artists in its equipment-rich facilities in Seattle's Central District. Pratt serves 3,400 students each year and more than 500 working artists use Pratt's affordable studios and equipment.

**###