

Custom Class Fact Sheet

Custom Classes at Pratt provide the time, space, and personal attention for people who need to take their skills to a new level – novice to beginner, beginner to intermediate, or intermediate to advanced. Custom classes are limited to a maximum of four.

Private Art Classes are a great way to:

- Explore working in a new medium, without committing to a full class
- Share your passion for creating with family or friends
- Get expert one-to-one instruction to master a specific technique
- Quickly gain skills you may have missed because of a scheduling conflict or class cancellation

The Need-to-Know Information

- Custom classes are designed for 1– 4 students
- 5 or more students are Art Parties. More information on Art Parties
- Flat hourly fee for studio, tools and safety equipment, regardless of number attending
- Materials are not covered in the hourly cost of a custom class.
- Studio availability is not guaranteed until payment is complete.
- No refunds except in case of Pratt Fine Arts Center weather-related or emergency closure
- Please allow up to two weeks* for your request to be scheduled and confirmed.

Ready to get started? Fill out the online Custom Class Student Profile form.

For more information or questions contact:

Myra Kaha
Youth and Teen Manager
Custom Classes
mkaha@pratt.org
206-328-2200 x224

Because we can often work within a shorter timeframe, please don't hesitate to ask about last-minute studio availability for your class.*