

About Pratt Fine Arts Center's Auction

On Saturday, April 28, 2018 more than 500 of Seattle's most stellar artists and arts patrons will gather at historic Hangar 30 in Seattle's Magnuson Park for a celestial evening of imaginative art, tasty fare, and fine wine. Guests will explore a Silent Auction featuring nearly 150 original artworks, before enjoying a delectable dinner and a rousing live auction of fine art and unique art-inspired experiences donated by inventive and illustrious artists from Seattle, the Pacific Northwest, and beyond. Join us to celebrate Pratt's exciting future and bid on out of this world artwork. All event proceeds support our mission to make art accessible to everyone.

About Pratt Fine Arts Center

Pratt is a unique multidisciplinary visual arts resource providing education and instruction, community programs, and professionally-equipped art making facilities. Pratt serves as a lasting tribute to Edwin T. Pratt, a civil rights leader who championed equal access to housing and educational opportunities for all Seattle residents. We honor his memory by making art education accessible for people of all ages, backgrounds, and skill levels.

Our primary program activities include:

- Adult Classes & Workshops: over 500 subsidized classes and workshops each year in glass art, sculpture, jewelry, printmaking, painting, drawing, woodworking, and more for adults at all skill levels;
- Studio Access: over 300 working artists access affordable, professionally-equipped studio space;
- Youth Programs: free and low-cost opportunities to explore creativity for over 800 K-12th graders, including many from underserved Seattle communities;
- Lectures, Exhibitions, and Events: more than 20,000 people access the visual arts each year through our free public lectures, exhibitions, demonstrations, and events;
- Scholarships & Tuition Assistance: an array of merit- and need-based scholarships and tuition assistance opportunities in every visual arts discipline.
