Pratt Fine Arts Center's 2010 T-Shirt Design Contest

Pratt Fine Arts Center announces their first annual design contest to bring a fresh look to Pratt's retail merchandise. The contest winner will be featured on Pratt shirts, and possibly other merchandise, for the next year. The design and merchandise will be unveiled at Pratt's Open House on Saturday, November 13th.

Competing artists must be a member of Pratt in order to participate. If you are not a current member of Pratt, you can become one in person at Pratt or by contacting Pratt's front desk at 206.328.2200 or online at <http://www.pratt.org/connect/membership.html>.

The winner of the contest will receive recognition on our website for one year, recognition everywhere Pratt merchandise is sold and a $100 gift certificate to Blick Art Materials.

Artists are encouraged to work in a variety of mediums with the understanding that their work will be made into a screen print.

Deadline for submissions: September 15, 2010.

Guideline for submissions*:

- There is no specific theme, so feel free to let your creative juices flow.
- Artwork of all mediums may be submitted with the understanding that it must be convertible to a three-color digital file.
- Artwork and its elements must be original by the artist and must not have been previously used for other commercial work
- Submissions must include artists name, email, phone number and address. You may also include a brief artist statement.
- All artwork MUST be sent in a basic 300 dpi JPG format on a CD and mailed to: Pratt Fine Arts Center, ATTN: T-shirt Design Contest, 1902 S Main St, Seattle, WA 98144 or emailed to bclark@pratt.org.
- Higher resolution art will be necessary at a later date ONLY if your artwork is selected.
- Winning artwork may be adjusted or altered for the final printing.
- Please keep in mind that while we will not censor any submissions, artwork should be appropriate in nature for all audiences.
- A confirmation of receipt email will be sent within 48 hours. If you do not receive a confirmation email within that time period, please re-send or call 206.328.2200.
- The winner will be announced by October 1, 2010.
- Winning artwork will become property of Pratt Fine Arts Center.
- Winning artist may not be a full-time employee of Pratt Fine Arts Center.
- Pratt Fine Arts Center is not obligated to use any of the submitted entries.
- If you have questions, please contact Brandi Clark at 206.328.2200 or bclark@pratt.org.
