

2024-25 Professional Artist-in-Residence Program: Jewelry Focus

Pratt Fine Arts Center welcomes a professional artist to explore new materials and processes during a month-long residency in Pratt's Jewelry Studio. The residency includes access to experienced studio assistants and options to explore other disciplines at Pratt. The Professional Artist-in-Residence Program provides a working artist with a new venue for experimentation and assistance in creative advancement.

Residency Details:

- Duration: The residency runs for one month, in March 2025.
- Studio Access: The recipient will have unlimited access to Pratt's Jewelry Studio throughout the residency, during normal operating hours (daily 9 AM to 10 PM). Access to other studios (blacksmithing, metal sculpture, stone sculpture, mold making, wood-working, printmaking/painting/drawing, and glass arts) is contingent on availability.
- Financial Support:
 - $250 stipend awarded directly to the artist
 - $500 credit for classes and access* in studios other than jewelry (availability permitting)
- Exhibition and Recognition: Pratt will provide a venue, reception, and publicity for a public lecture and in-studio exhibition showcasing the recipient's work.

Eligibility:

The Artist-in-Residence Program is open to professional working visual artists aged 18 years and older. Pratt staff, board members, and instructors not eligible.

Application Evaluation:

Applications will be reviewed by a jury of Pratt staff, artists, and arts professionals. The residency will be awarded to the applicant for whom the residency stands to have the greatest impact. The jury will specifically assess artistic intent, the potential for professional and creative advancement, and the fit of the proposed project with the resources available.
