

Online Art Instructors

Department: Glass Studio, Metal & Stone Studio, Wood Studio, Jewelry Studio and Youth & Teen Program.

Reports to: Studio Managers & Director of Programs

Status: Part-time

Pratt Fine Arts Center has launched our online learning programming and we are seeking highly motivated and energetic instructors for a variety of visual arts mediums. We are looking for instructors who are comfortable in front of the camera and willing to find new pathways to engage with students. *We are currently looking for candidates with class proposals that fit within 5 of our 6 studio offerings (Wood, Glass, Metal & Stone, Jewelry, Youth and Teen). A qualified candidate is responsible for the creation and delivery of online learning course content using Microsoft Teams. Each course should include recorded content, online live discussions/demos, external resources and an opportunity student to engage with one another. Reporting to the Director of Programs and our Studio Managers, we are seeking instructors who have passion, experience and feel comfortable and confident bringing visual arts curriculum to students in a virtual classroom.

Pratt Fine Art Center instructors are responsible for creating engaging experiences for a diverse group of people that exposes them to traditional and new creative techniques.

*We have a current need for leatherworking, wire sculpture, glass offerings, small scale metal work and carving.

Pratt Fine Arts Center is an equal opportunity employer and committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion. BIPOC are encouraged to apply.
