

About Pratt Fine Arts Center's Fall Open House

On Saturday, September 7, 2024, Pratt will welcome approximately 1,200 visitors to our campus to experience the vibrant, diverse culture of the Central Area. We invite you to join us in support of this free, family-friendly event.

Fall Open House guests will enjoy:

- Live music presented in partnership with Jackson Street Jazz Walk
- Live artmaking demonstrations led by approximately 40 professional artists
- Hands-on artmaking activities for all ages
- In-studio art exhibits
- Local artist and maker booths offering affordable artwork
- Local community booths promoting free resources and services
- Tasty food truck fare

About Pratt Fine Arts Center

Pratt fosters a creative, inclusive artmaking community, providing access to quality education and professionally equipped studios for everyone. We promote the joy and transformative power of art and actively support the development of visual artists. Artists, community members, and learners of all ages and backgrounds explore multiple visual arts media throughout our studios.

Our Primary Program Activities

Adult Classes & Workshops: over 500 subsidized classes and workshops each year in glass, sculpture, jewelry, drawing, painting, printmaking, and woodworking for adults at all skill levels;

Youth & Teen Programs: free, pay-what-you-can, and low-cost opportunities to explore creativity for hundreds of Seattle youth and teens, including many from underserved communities;

Scholarships & Tuition Assistance: merit- and need-based scholarships and tuition assistance opportunities for all ages in every visual arts discipline;

Studio Access: affordable, professionally-equipped studio space for over 350 practicing artists;

Free Artist Talks, Exhibitions, and Events: free access to the visual arts for thousands of community members each year through our artist lectures, exhibitions, demonstrations, and events.
