

LEARN MORE

www.pratt.org/youth-and-teen
1902 S Main St Seattle, WA 98144

(located in the historic Central Area
Arts & Cultural District)

YOUTH PAY-WHAT-YOU-CAN
PROGRAM

SPRING 2020

For info about Pratt's
Youth Programs:

Gabriel-Bello Diaz, Youth & Teen
Program Manager
gdiaz@pratt.org
206.328.2200 x224

Photo Credit: Alec Miller

SPRING 2020 CLASS SCHEDULE

Saturday 4/11/20 - 5/30/20

5 – 7 year olds	11am – 12pm
8 – 10 year olds	12:30 – 2pm
11- 13 year olds	2:30 -4:30pm

Sunday 4/12/20 - 5/31/20

5 – 7 year olds	1 – 2pm
8 – 10 year olds	2:30 – 4:00pm
11- 13 year olds	4:30 – 6:30pm

PAYING IT FORWARD

The Pay-What-You-Can model depends on your donations and support to ensure our sustainability. Pratt provides suggested donation amounts for selected classes with the goal of “paying it forward” and assisting those who struggle with providing affordable art experiences to their children.

If you'd like to pay an amount that's not listed, please contact at 206.328.2200 x224 or email gdiaz@pratt.org

Pratt
Your artist is inside.

PRICING OPTIONS

Pratt offers experiential 8-week art classes for youth ages 5 - 13 where students explore self-expression through painting, drawing, sculpture and other media as they delve into the elements and vocabulary of art.

Sliding Scale Pricing Options:
$20, $50, $100, $180

To register, stop by the Pratt front desk at 1902 S. Main Street located in the historic Central Area Arts & Cultural District or visit www.pratt.org/youth-and-teen. At checkout, you can select your preferred pricing option.

